AW 22

Feel The Forest

A collection inspired by the textures of nature. Each natural and imperfect line creates a world of sensations and experiences around trees and other natural aspects. Breathing, feeling and caressing the pleasures that the earth gives us. Caring and learning from it and from yourself as a philosophy of life. With soft fabrics, prints and organic materials, a synergy between the natural and the personal has been created to represent the new Autumn Winter collection by MUS & BOMBON.
